

I am opposed to airborne cellular phones. It is bad enough in airports and restaurants. I can't imagine trapped in a seat next to non stop conversations for the duration of my flight. I foresee more raucus confrontations between passengers should this come to pass. Let them send text messages only via a laptop.